

TERNOPIL IVAN PULUJ NATIONAL TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY

Member of the European University Association (EUA)

Participant of Magna Charta Universitatum

Member of the Baltic University Programme (BUP)

Member of Network of French Engineering Schools "Grandes Ecoles" Reseau "n+i"

Member of the International Association of Scientific and Technological University Libraries (IATUL)

History

University was founded in 1960 as a general technical faculty of the Lviv Polytechnical Institute. In 1996 Ternopil Ivan Puluj State Technical University was established on the basis of Ternopil instrument-making institute. In 1997 the university was given the 4th level of accreditation and is the only one higher technical educational institution in Ternopil region. In 2009 the university was granted the status of a national one.

The mission of the University is to create the conditions for providing quality modern education through free creative training and research in accordance with social needs, caused by the development of Ukrainian science, economy and culture, as well as global processes of human civilization.

TNTU structure

Faculties

- Faculty of Engineering of Machines, Structures and Technologies - 1244 students(88)
- Faculty of Applied Information Technologies and Electrical Engineering - 757 students(31)
- Faculty of Computer Information Systems and Software Engineering - 902 students(91)
- Faculty of Economics and Management - 1024 students(57)

Structure of Ternopil Ivan Pul'uj National Technical University

Internationalisation

Aims and goals:

- Further inclusion of the University into the mainstream of academic cooperation in the region, Europe and the world
- Research and innovation activities
- exchange programs
- joint double degree programs with partner universities abroad
- training of the university teaching and non-teaching staff to work with foreign students and faculty

International collaborations and consortia

The University has experience at participating in Tempus and Erasmus+KA107, Jean Monnet and KA2 projects, participant of the Baltic University Programme (BUP), conduct Double Degree Diploma programs with partner Universities from Germany, Poland and Slovakia.

Internationalisation structure:

Recto
Vice-Rector for International Cooperation
International Cooperation Office
Center of International Education
Deans and Vice-deans for International cooperation at the Faculties

International Cooperation Office

International Cooperation Office was created in 2002. There are 7 specialists working at this office write now. They fulfill the tasks of organization, coordination and implementation of measures in the field of international cooperation of TNTU, aimed at deepening cooperation with foreign partners on the basis of international agreements in the field of education, science and culture.

Dana Ivashkiv
specialist of International Cooperation Office
e-mail: idana@ukr.net